

ASSOCIATED ARTISTS

OF WINSTON-SALEM, INC.

July 2021 News Briefs

We hope you all had a fun, but safe, Independence Day Celebration.

RECENT SALES:

Congrats to Rene Tegeler, Sophie Van Zandt (2x) and an “after the fact” sale for Patty Donahue, all from Community Exhibits, and Barbara Rizza Mellin, R.L. Baroni, & Cheryl Davis (2x) from the Artist Spotlight 2021 exhibit.

More Artists are needed to fill Community Exhibit spots. Please sign up to be part of this popular program. This is a free program, but you must be an AAWS member to participate.

To learn more, <https://associatedartists.org/community-exhibits/>

RECEPTIONS:

July 9, Every Corner Gallery SUMMER IN THE CITY reception: 5:00-7:00 pm at Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts, N. 251 Spruce Street.

July 30, The Wachovia Gallery TOGETHER AGAIN reception, 6:00-7:30 pm, at the Masonic Center of Winston-Salem, 4537 Country Club Rd.

PROSPECTUS:

Available: “Together Again,” Wachovia Gallery at the Masonic Center. Install date: July 24.

About to release: the prospectus for The Benton Convention Center “Fall '21” exhibit in the Salem Foyer Gallery. Watch for it. Install date: August 30.

SAVE THE DATE:

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING FOR ALL MEMBERS, Tuesday August 17th, 6-8 pm, at the Masonic Center, in person with refreshments, or by zoom. Details will follow.

CONGRATULATIONS

to Emily Cassidy who won 2nd prize in the Yadkin Arts Council 2021 Juried Show, with her spectacular colored-pencil rendition of “Jefferson” (bulldog), seen recently in the AAWS Artist Spotlight 2021 show in the Arboreal Gallery. To see “Jefferson”:

<https://associatedartists.org/artist-spotlight-2021/emily-l-cassidy/>

END DATE CHANGE...Every Corner Gallery:

Because September 25 is the Bookmarks Festival surrounding Milton Rhodes, the end date for SUMMER IN THE CITY exhibit is changed to October 1, with art pick up on October 2. A new show will be installed on October 2. Prospectus to come.

Happy Creating,

Margaret Webster-Shapiro, July 7, 2021